

WORKINGS OF WHITEHALL: 19TH MARCH 2019

09:00	Coffee and Registration
09:30	Chair's welcome Roundtable discussions Introductions and key learning aims	Peter Unwin, Former Chief Executive, The Whitehall & Industry Group Discussion in groups
09:50	Overview of Civil Service, The Cabinet Office and key players in the policy making process	Peter Unwin , Former Chief Executive, The Whitehall & Industry Group
10:20	Overview of policy making	Olly Newton , Director of Policy and Research, The Edge Foundation, and former Head of Apprenticeships Strategy, Department for Education
10:50	Coffee Break
11:05	The role of HM Treasury How policy funding decisions are made	Lindsey Whyte , Deputy Director, Devolved and Local Government
11:25	Policy case study How policy is formed and the role of the policy maker Group activity: policy proposal	Ted Hayden, Industrial Strategy, Head of Grand Challenges at the Department for Business, Energy and Industrial Strategy Facilitated by Olly Newton
12:30	Lunch and Networking
13:10	Brexit session The workings of the Brexit department How other government departments are reacting to Brexit	James Dowler , Deputy Director, Stakeholder Engagement, Department for Exiting the European Union
13:40	How business engages with Whitehall When and how does business connect with central government?	Mark Langdale , Partner, Government & Health, Arcadis
14:10	Coffee break
14:30	Who are the power players? The role of the Permanent Secretary	Sir Martin Donnelly Former Permanent Secretary at Department for International Trade
15:00	The role of the Special Adviser	Emily Walch Corporate Affairs Director, The Investment Association and former Special Adviser, Department for Business, Innovation and Skills
15:30	Closing remarks	Peter Unwin , Former Chief Executive, The Whitehall and Industry Group
15:40	Close	